Metal Roofs Are Blamed for Heat and Lack of Rain

(By The Associated Press)

TOKIO, Sept. 23.—Three hundred thousand metal roofs in Tokio, most of them tin and galvanized iron, are adding appreciably to the discomforts of one of the hottest summers in recent years. More than one-half the city's population lives in buildings erected since the earthquake of last September, and nearly all these buildings have metal roofs. Temperatures in such houses are from 5 to 10 degrees Fahrenheit higher than in buildings roofed with slate or tile. Experts say the heat is not the only discomfort engendered by the metal roofs. Tokio and its suburbs are suffering the worst summer drought in 30 years. Distinct to the north and southwest get rain, but not the Tokio metropolitan area, and half the wells in the suburbs have dried up. It is argued that Tokio gets no rain because the metal roofs, reflecting the sun's rays, generate a body of superheated air which rises and carries the rain clouds away.

FLOWERS BEATS ANDERSON.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 22.—Tiger Flowers, of Atlanta, won the judges' decision over Lee Anderson, of New York, in a 12-round bout here tonight. Flowers taking every round. Both are negroes. Flowers weighed 167 pounds and Anderson 173.

Kidney Trouble? Stomach Distress?

Huntington, W. Va.—"I was a sufferer from kidney trouble and stomach distress and had tried at least fifty different remedies for both troubles and could get no relief. I had almost given up all hopes when one of my friends suggested that I give Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The same day I went to the drug store and told the druggist what my trouble was and that I wanted to try Dr. Pierce's remedies. I bought one bottle of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one of the 'Anuric (Kidney and Backache) Tablets.' After taking these medicines I began to feel like a different person. To date I have taken three bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two of the 'Anuric Tablets' and can honestly say that I have never felt better in my life than I do at present."—F. E. Howland, 344 Twentieth St.

Don't wait for serious kidney ailment to set in. Buy your remedy now. Write with Dr. Pierce's Anuric. At all drug stores. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkg. of any of his remedies.—adv.

WOULDN'T SWAP BLACK-DRAUGHT

West Virginia Man Says He Hadn't Been Taking Black-Draught a Week Until His Pain Was Gone.

Huntington, W. Va.—Mr. Thomas Ratcliffe (R. F. D. 1, Box 104) is talking about Theodor's Black-Draught, saying he "wouldn't swap it for any medicine I know of for my old liver."

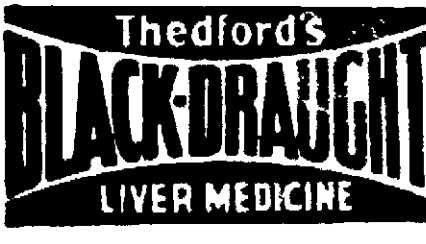

"I am now 55 years old," says Mr. Ratcliffe. "I have been taking Black-Draught as a liver regulator for about twelve years."

"I remember very distinctly when I first began taking it. I had a severe pain in my left side and under my shoulder. It would catch me and I couldn't straighten up. I had to breathe. I would have headaches."

"Some one told me to take Black-Draught and I did. Do you know I hadn't been taking Black-Draught a week till that pain was gone. I was better than I had been in a long time."

"When I get bilious or a headache or dizzy, I take Black-Draught. It is all right. I recommend it."

There are thousands of other men who would not swap Black-Draught for any other liver medicine. That is the reason why the sale of Theodor's Black-Draught has steadily increased for eleven years until more than ten million packages are now sold per year.

BOYS WILL HANG

BALTIMORE, Sept. 23.—Two boys, both from poor families, have been sentenced to death in Baltimore. They are Thomas J. Foran, 15, and Charles Dobbs, 13. They were found guilty by three judges on a charge of murdering Louis Cohen in an attempted holdup of Cohens store. One of their companions was killed by police when he attempted to escape after the murder and was given life imprisonment.

Both Foran and Dobbs maintain their innocence. The parents of Thomas Foran live in Philadelphia and their father is a working man. Mrs. Foran says she struggled to bring Tom up "right" and all her 12 children attended Sunday school regularly when young. Tom ran away from home, came to Baltimore and began to associate with youths with police records.

Charles Mullen, who confessed and brought their conviction later repudiated his statement, saying it was dictated by police and that he was forced to sign it. "I don't know why I made a confession," says Mullen. "I answered yes to the questions of the police. They would not let me alone. It was easier to say yes. Dobbs says that some day they will find the murderer, but it will be after the other boys are dead. I think we should be hanged if we killed a man, but we didn't. We did not have a fair trial. The police told us they would help us prove our innocence, but they bore false witness against us."

"Take Loeb and Leopold," continued Mullen, referring to two Chicago millionaires' sons who admitted murder and were given life imprisonment. "They were guilty and ought to hang but they got off. That is what money gets you."

Foran cries in his cell, and says that "the cards were stacked against us. We are not guilty."

The boys were convicted largely by circumstantial evidence. Testimony of eyewitnesses was contradictory. The boys' families have no money, and of an appeal which is costly, has not been decided.

However, a movement is under way today to raise a fund for the defense of the boys. If the boys are hanged they will be the first white persons executed here in 20 years.

CHARLES DOBBS (ABOVE) AND THOMAS J. FORAN.

Many are indignant because in a similar case three years ago, in which adults killed a man under paralyzing circumstances, the accused were convicted and given life imprisonment.

EUROPEAN TOUR FOR MAJOR LEAGUE CLUBS

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Preliminary arrangements for the European tour of the New York National and Chicago American League baseball teams were announced today by President Charles A. Comiskey of the Chicago White Sox. It will be the first baseball expeditionary force since the world tour of the same teams in 1913.

While the other trip, despite an initial outlay of $100,000 was a profitable venture, the agreement signed this time provides that all profits shall be turned over to charity.

The countries to be visited are British Isles, France, Germany, Italy and Belgium.

The forty members of the official party besides wives and friends, will leave New York the night of October 10, it was announced tonight, and according to plans, the first game of the tour will be played in Montreal, Sunday, October 12. Presidents Comiskey and John J. McGraw will be in active charge of the trip, an umpire from the American and one from the National league will state at the games, and two American newspaper men will be official reporters. The itinerary of the tour is not complete, but, barring unforeseen circumstances, will include the following dates:

"Quebec October 15, sail that night for Liverpool, arrive Liverpool October 22, play in London Oct. 25, Paris Sunday Oct. 26, Cork, Dublin, Belfast, Glasgow and Edinburgh dates not yet fixed. Second game in London Nov. 1, Paris, Nov. 2, Brussels, Berlin, Prague and Leipzig, dates not fixed. Paris Nov. 9, Milan, Florence, Naples and Rome dates not yet fixed.

L. P. SUMMERS DENIES ANY WRONG-DOING

BRISTOL, Va., Sept. 22.—In a spirited address before a crowd of several hundred persons in the opera house at Abington, L. P. Summers, Republican congressional candidate in the 9th Virginia district this afternoon replied to charges of corruption made recently by J. W. McGavock, Republican chairman of the county and Republican candidate for the U. S. Senate 3 years ago.

Mr. Summers denied that he had been guilty of wrongdoing personally or officially while district attorney and demanded an apology and retraction from Mr. McGavock. He declared the charges were intended solely to bring about his defeat for Congress, and that his enemies were becoming desperate because it now appeared he was certain of election.

The Republican nominee for Congress was warmly applauded. Several others were heard in defense of Mr. Summers. It was the first address of the campaign that Mr. Summers has delivered in his home town.

SAYS CROOKS EMPLOYED AS MAIL HANDLERS MADE POSSIBLE BIG ROBBERY

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—When William F. Fahy, highly trusted Chicago postal inspector, who was arrested recently as the "inside and master mind" in the $3,000,000 Roundout mail robbery, and his partner, Elmer Farmer, before United States Commissioner Henry C. Beidler, here today, it was with the determination to prove if possible that it was crooks employed as mail handlers, as a result of the present faulty system of handling mail, who made possible the gigantic robbery, rather than a man "high up on the inside." This was indicated to the writer by R. Millroy, attorney for the former inspector.

Fahy, who stoutly claims his innocence, denying that his acquaintance with James Murray, millionaire and former brewer, who was found visiting one of the Newton brothers who carried out the actual robbery, connects him as "an inside man in the case," calls the present system of handling mail, who made possible the gigantic robbery, rather than a man "high up on the inside." This was indicated to the writer by R. Millroy, attorney for the former inspector.

YOUNG GIRL TRIES TO END HER LIFE WITH AN IMPROVISED GUILLOTINE

Puts Head on Block and Commands Brother to Cut It Off, Directing Him in Three Blows, the Last Rendering Her Unconscious—Unrequited Love May Be Cause.

By WALDO MOORE (Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)

LAFAYETTE, La., Sept. 23.—Unrequited love or mental derangement? From one of these hypotheses to the other leap the warring tongues of all Lafayette today as its residents discuss the third attempt of Anastasia Boudreaux, to end her life—almost successful this time, thanks to the aid of her two-year-old brother Georges and an impromptu guillotine.

But on one thing the verdict of the French population of Lafayette county is practically unanimous. That is whatever the motive, Miss Boudreaux proved herself a true French woman. If it was disappointment in love, they say, she was but running true to form in preferring death to love unreturned. And if it was something else—well even Marie Antoinette could not have gone to the guillotine and awaited its descending blade with more sang froid than eighteen-year-old Anastasia displayed when she put her head on the family chopping block at the Boudreaux place at Rayne, and commanded little Georges to strike it off with an axe.

After three unsuccessful attempts, the child gave the alarm, but not until he had cut a deep gash in Anastasia's neck, had cut off part of one of her ears, had fractured her skull and she had sunk unconscious by the side of the execution block.

Two months ago the girl tried to hang herself but was prevented by members of the family, who discovered her intentions in time. Several days ago she again tried to hang herself, but a rope broke before she was insensible.

She then decided to have Georges cut off her head. At first the child demurred, but gifts of candy and toys prevailed. Taking him by the hand when other members of the family—father, mother and another brother—were absent from the house, the girl led Georges to the woodpile and placed the axe in his hand.

"Now cut my head off," she commanded.

The child took up the axe, the type made for a woodsman. He was barely able to lift it above the level of the block. The first blow drew a small amount of blood from Anastasia's neck.

"Again Georges, hit harder," she commanded.

The axe flashed again in the air and a part of her ear fell to the ground. She bade him strike again. The third blow fractured her skull.

DR. PEACOCK'S ARREST

With a neighborly interest in the affairs of North Carolina, we cannot fail to express thankfulness that Dr. J. W. Peacock, of Thomasville, N. C., has been captured after two years of freedom following an escape from the Raleigh penitentiary which at the time was considered a reflection on those in charge of it. Dr. Peacock was an influential man. He killed an ex-serviceman and chief of police under circumstances rarely equalled for brutality. The physician from a second floor room spied the police chief standing on the street below. He took a rifle and shot him down and when the wounded man staggered into a nearby store, the medico picked up a revolver, followed him and pumped lead into his prostrate body finishing his life in this callous way. The trial was the old story of disordered mind which saved him from forfeiting his life.

The Carolina authorities were put on their mettle through his escape and we note that he was arrested in California by the warden of the penitentiary himself. Just how North Carolina feels about it is further evidenced by the fact that the attorney general of the Old North State will go to the Pacific and handle the extradition formalities himself. Dr. Peacock is to plead insanity and hopes to play an ace or two before he yields his fight against returning to the state where he rightly belongs and where he should serve his term. The case is an important one since it effects a basic principle of justice. If Dr. Peacock wins, we might discharge our judges fling open the jail gates and tell all unmitigated scoundrels who cherish a thrill in taking human life to "go to it."

THE ROUTING PROBLEM

Recognition of the advertising value derived from the increasing army of motor tourists and the wild scramble to secure favorable routings is precipitating a situation which will require proper handling. Inter-community bitterness is bound to result from the sudden awakening to this new asset, and the hectic efforts to swing the trend of motor borne traffic this way and that for the pecuniary profit which lies in it is already costing much in the way of money and time. First it was the bringing of pressure to secure the building of the roads on the powers that be. The roads have been built and now a movement which is growing rapidly is seen, this designed to win the tourist trade. We had an example of this only a few days ago when the Danville Automobile Association with the Chamber of Commerce at no small expense staged a three day motor trip in which six men participated for the purpose of proving that the best road into North Carolina from Washington lies through Danville and not through Petersburg and Durham. The Richmond Automobile Association which maintains an information bureau there and on which the southbound tourists rely for dependable information was asked to act as arbiter and its secretary accepted invitation for the trip, made it and decided in favor of Danville. The natural assumption on the part of the Danville road boosters was that tourist traffic would be directed this way. That of course was the primary object of the trip and the

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS.

Keep Going

A lady called upon me in my office today to present a business proposition. I listened to her intelligent talk and became interested in her story.
When she had finished her business talk she told me much of her philosophy of living. She was all smiles. She had few wrinkles in her face. Her hair was hardly touched with gray.
"How old do you think I am?" she asked. "Not a day over 50," I replied—for it is always a mark of intelligence to hit just a little low when it comes to a lady's age. "I am in my 77th year," she replied. "I am an old friend of Senator Depew's," she assured me, and went on to say that the Senator had said that he owed his remarkable youth at 90 to the fact that he had kept busy. "Keep Going" he gave as his motto for a long life and a happy one.
What a great motto this is! Keep going.
An active life is always a useful life. Even a dumb machine begins to rust and fall to pieces when it is not given over to use.
Keep going and you will grow old by staying young, strange as that may sound. For, after all, youth is a state of mind. The outward covering of the body counts for little so long as the mind stays healthy and full of that appreciation that welcomes the coming of new springs from year to year.
I have noted that "retired" men do not seem to live very long after they give up their activities and duties of business life.
The antidote for sudden failure in business is to—Keep Going. And when disappointment comes upon you unawares it is not well to sit and despair, but to stand up, lift your chin and—Keep Going!

THE REFEREE

By Albert Apple

FIENDISH
More than 1000 different kinds of poison gases have been perfected—ready to be used in the next war.
Science, which has created our material civilization, is also destroying it. Reminds you of a child building a house of cards so it will have a structure to knock down.
Satan lives in a laboratory.
SLANDER
A few Kentuckians are being arrested under the new state law against slander and malicious gossip.
If this were a national law and strictly enforced, nearly all of us would be in jail within 24 hours.
Of the many forms of cowardice, the foremost is saying behind a person's back what one wouldn't date say to his face. Be a decent fellow, a good soldier. Spike slanderous rumor. If it reaches you, let it go no farther.

FAGS
Americans are smoking 65 cigarettes for every $35 used a year ago. One result will show up years hence—increased lung trouble, bronchitis and tuberculosis, also throat ailments. The cigarette is too easy to inhale. A safer smoke is the cigar—so inhale which requires leather lungs.
For this reason, it's a pity women—turning to tobacco—don't smoke cigars instead of fags. A confirmed cigar smoker's lungs, dissected, are found saturated with tiny bits of carbon from inhaled smoke. This is health advice, not preaching.

OLD-TIMES
Old documents, come to light in New Hampshire, show that Judge Jonathan Lawrence 72 years ago paid these prices when he traded at the "general store":
Butter 20 cents a pound; eggs, 12 cents a dozen; apples, 10 cents a peck; flour, $5.25 a barrel; gloves 28 cents a pair; fannel, 30 cents a yard; sheeting, 12 cents a yard.
Some of these prices are not as low as you'd expect. Prices reach about the same high peaks every 50 years. Weight sold for $3.50 a bushel at times after the Napoleonic and American Civil wars.

PASSENGERS
At the American Legion convention in Massachusetts 500 delegates came by auto, only 41 by train. This doesn't surprise railroad men. They say the auto has cut tremendously into the railroad passenger business. So will the airplane, later.
Here's a prediction: Popularization of flying is close at hand. The airplane will come into common use almost as quickly as the radio.

BEHIND
There's only one auto for every 35,000 people in China. The cause is cheap human labor—so cheap that machinery cannot compete with it as yet.
At that, though, China is only about 20 years behind America in the matter of autos. She is the greatest undeveloped trade market in the world. Next probably live to see the time when more American goods will be sold in China than all Europe combined. An advantage is that the Chinese pay for what they get.

Ducks are smarter than chickens. Ducks eat with a shovel.

Reports from various sections indicate heavy winds are damaging the crop of political plumes.

Chang Lu wants to be the head of China. We don't. The head of China is too liable to be cut off.

Failure

"Were you a failure today?"
I heard a voice ask.
And I hurried to say:
"I completed my task."
"Not enough,"
Said the voice sternly low.
You were overly rich.
With a lot that I spoke.
"Your work you performed
In a suitable way,
But you failed and you failed
At a younger today.
"You were cruelly cruel,
And a cruel heart had
And she went away hurt
By the things that you said
"Did it enter your mind
When they blundered and fell
That you could have been kind
And succeeded as well?"
"The day brought its gain
And the task is complete.
But must you give pain
To make victory sweet?"
"And what do the boys
And the girl now declare?
Do they praise you with joy
Or pronounce you unfair?"
"You got, as you say,
What you set out to get.
But what of today?
Is it free from regret?"
"You call it 'success,'
But how what of those two?
Do they think more or less
Of a fellow like you?"

SYNOPSIS
Robert Foran, newspaper correspondent, accompanies the Theodore Roosevelt expedition into Africa in 1909. They arrive at Mombasa, the "gateway of British East Africa," to their first camp on the game-crowded Kapiti Plains, 238 miles from the coast. With Colonel Roosevelt are his son, Kermit, and three scientific members of his staff—Major Edgar A. Mearns, Edmund Heller and J. Allen Loring.
After a wonderfully successful shooting trip in the Souk country, the expedition camps for more hunting at a farm called Salga-Sai. Proceeding next to Naivasha, the party meets with more good sport. Foran and Colonel Roosevelt set out to shoot a pelican for the museum. The hunt is unsuccessful, however.

I suddenly missed one of the lionesses, but carried on after the other. The other lioness stopped, apparently, and crouched behind a thick bush. She let me pass, and then sprang at Judd."
"She was about ten yards or so from Judd, when he saw her; and he fired at her from his hip, never hoping to hit her but just praying that she might be turned. As he fired, his mule bucked him off, and when he landed, he found that he had fallen almost touching the lioness. Judd quickly reloaded; but the lioness lay on her side and never moved. Judd rose to his feet quickly and examined her cautiously. To his amazement he found that she was dead."
"We found on examination that Judd's chance shot had sent a bullet

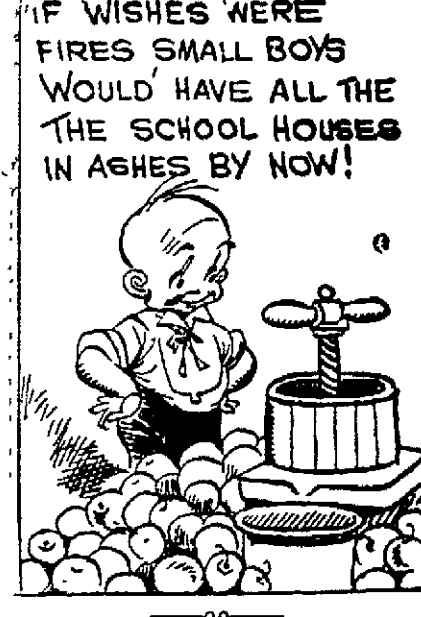

ROOSEVELT AT THE MISSION NEAR NAIROBI.

Colonel Roosevelt planted a tree outside the offices of the Horns Trading Company, beside one that had been recently planted by the Duke of Connaught. On this occasion he was presented with a very fine silver-mounted Arab knife in a native-wood box.
The stewards of the East African Turf Club gave a dinner to Colonel Roosevelt and Kermit on the first night of the races, and it was a real pleasure to see how keenly Roosevelt entered into the gay spirit of that gathering.
During dinner he had touched his lips to a glass of champagne once, and then had fallen back upon lemon squashes. His glass of champagne remained beside his place all the evening, as full of the golden fluid as when it was poured out.—Continued.

Jack Jenks was not considered a very generous young man, and so it greatly astonished the neighborhood when he got engaged to a girl. Everybody had thought he was far too "mean" to spend any money on a second person. But Jack had his own ideas on that subject.
On the first evening on which they went out together they decided to visit a "movie," and, for a while, they walked along the street, uncertain which house to patronize. At last they came to the "Palace," and stopped for a moment to look at the programme. Boldly displayed in big type were the words: "The Woman Pays!"
At once Jack turned to his fiancée and took her arm.
"Jean," he said, "We'll go in here."

MISS MAMIE HALL DIES AT HOSPITAL AFTER OPERATION

Miss Mamie Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hall, of West Lee street, died about 5 o'clock last night at Edmunds hospital, where she had been operated upon between midnight Sunday and yesterday morning to relieve from bowel obstruction. She was just 16 years old and was an unusually clever and promising young girl. Her sudden illness began Saturday, and the operation was decided on as the only hope of relief.

Miss Hall had long been active in the Sunday school and church work of the Lee Street Baptist congregation and was a young lady of fine character. She is survived by her parents and several brothers, Messrs. G. C. Charles, Jesse, and Henry, and a sister, Mrs. Alice Hazlewood, of Washington, D. C.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced.

MRS. KATHERINE COWAN NOW WILMINGTON'S MAYOR

WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 22.—The hand of a woman grasped the wheel of Wilmington's municipal affairs this morning when Mrs. Katherine Mayo Cowan was sworn in as mayor of the city in succession to her husband, James Hill Cowan. Clerk W. N. Harries, of the superior court, administered the oath of office in the mayor's office at City Hall.

DIGGS WARNS OF FAKE SCHEMES TO SELL BOGUS STOCK

The following bulletin was issued yesterday by Edward R. Diggs, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce:

For many generations the United States has suffered from promoters of fake securities and business undertakings. This economic loss injures commerce just as surely as fire, storms, war and other destructive agencies. It is as indefensible as any act of pure carelessness. Various states have, from time to time, passed laws designed to protect the innocent public from gold-brick vendors, for in modern society the old principles of caveat emptor must be modified. Such laws, however, can only partially accomplish their purpose, for swindlers quickly find methods to circumvent statutory regulations. The individual, in earning his livelihood, is subject to many vicissitudes through the natural ups and downs of business practices and economic laws. It is, indeed, a shame that he should suffer also from the actions of those who, as promoters of fake stock and questionable business schemes, are so wilfully trying to rob him of his earnings.

During the past few years the movement has spread among Chambers of Commerce throughout our country to protect their communities from these leeches. Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, under the auspices of their State Chambers of Commerce, have been especially active in this particular. Certain other associations of a national character are also working to purify business and eliminate the crook and swindler. These organizations are co-operating very closely with Chambers of Commerce. It might also be mentioned that a number of private organizations, conducted for persons with this idea, providing any information which might be desired, regarding the sellers of stocks and bonds in general.

It is, of course, quite impossible for any Chamber of Commerce to protect its community completely from losses in fake business propositions, even though that questionable enterprise may be conducted in its immediate neighborhood. A great many are operated at first within the law and their fraudulent intentions are seldom known until after the fraud has been perpetrated. Naturally, when this happens, restitution is seldom possible.

The general public is getting, in a way, however, of making inquiry of the Chamber of Commerce in the community where the stock and other promoters have their headquarters. One of the members of our local organization recently gained some valuable information through the Chamber of Commerce, and with the help of a city State Examiner, a house which probably forestalled, as far as Danville is concerned, the activities of a certain motion picture promotion company. This information, regarding the promoters and their movements, is provided and even given to the city. The organization may not care to supply information from its own office, it is of great assistance in suppressing questionable undertakings through co-operation with national or state associations, which are engaged solely in this work and are constantly reporting upon and examining into secure promotions and business enterprises of uncertain liability.

Everyone should feel the liberty to call upon the Danville Chamber of Commerce, at any time, and they will be glad to make whatever investigations may be deemed necessary along the above lines.

GREAT COMEDY ACROBATS FEATURE MAJESTIC'S BILL

The Majestic theatre opened the week with Billy Leroy and his Broadway Review company, an aggregation of fourteen persons, presenting five vaudeville acts of more than usual interest. These included blackface comedy by Leroy and Witzgall, Miss Neelson, blues singer, as she is termed, Eddie Hill, with his mystifying tricks in magic and a harmony quartet with jazz as a variation.

A special added act, the Jung brothers, comedy acrobats, is one of the greatest acts of its true ever shown here. The two wonderful acrobats, who are no less remarkable as comedians were formerly with the Ringling Brothers' shows, and have been seen in all the larger cities. Their act last night was, in the judgment of many, well worth the admission price. It is hardly to be expected that they are excelled by any in this attractive combination of acrobatics with comedy.

At all three shows yesterday the roaring black-face comedy, "Ghost Mountain," made a great hit and got continuous laughs. In make-up, dialect and negro mannerisms and superstition, it is a scream in the way of comedy.

REDUCES SENTENCE OF MAN WHO SUBSTITUTED LIQUOR

(By The Associated Press.) PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.—A reduction of two and one-half months on a six month sentence was given to Matthew F. Griffin, former United States secret service chief here, by Federal Judge M. N. Keenan here today when Griffin and seven other defendants in an alleged "water-for-whiskey" substitution scheme were penalized as the result of their second conviction.

DAILY PUZZLE

A farmer had a number of geese, which he trained to walk in small groups, each group having the same number.

When the geese formed in pairs, there was an odd goose left over; and when they went in threes, fours, fives and sixes, there was always one goose left out of the procession. But when they formed in sevens, the extra goose found a place, and none was left over.

What is the smallest number of geese that the farmer could have had?

Yesterday's answer: IEMFAEDIEIIEINGS. Insert the letter "N" eleven times in the line of letters, and the following sentence may be formed: NINE MEN FANDED IN NINE INNINGS.

BLIND MAN BUILDS OWN HOME

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 23.—A blind man wanted a home of his own. So C. J. Balfour set about to build his house with his own hands.

"He began to excavate for the basement. And that was a tedious task. Unable to see where he was going when pushing a wheelbarrow, he was compelled to remove the dirt in a blind wagon. That way he could hold out one hand in front and feel his way around."

Came then another obstacle. In his digging he struck a 22-inch formation of flint and limestone. He obtained a "plug and feather" drill and plunged ahead. To guide the drill, he invented a tube inclosure.

Month after month he toiled, hewing the rock away. Yet his adversity became a blessing, for the rock could be used in the foundations.

Finally he completed the basement. And in it he installed his own plumbing, fruit cabinets, coal bin and a garage. In another end, he built and he equipped a work bench upon which he cut out and finished parts of the house of his dreams.

He sought a loan, telling of the work he had finished. He was refused.

But he wasn't discouraged. Slowly he went ahead. There were months when there was no money to buy his lumber. But there were spent in carving stones and doing his mill work.

"I had to learn a dozen trades," he explains. "I completed a piece of work to find it had been done wrong. Then I had to do it all over again."

"I cut the flinty rocks for a mantel, piecing them together one by one. I found I had cut them four inches too wide for the place they were to occupy."

"But one of my neighbors was building, so I gave them to him. Then did them all over again for myself."

And so the operations progressed. Now, after seven years, Balfour, his wife and little son have moved in.

It is a home as perfect in every detail as those built by artisans of years of experience.

He has done considerable amateur photographic work.

And besides all that, he can ride a bicycle—that is when there is someone to give him verbal guidance. On his first vacation he pedaled up to the summit of Pike's Peak.

FIELD'S ROAD ENDORSEMENT LACKS ANY OFFICIAL COLOR

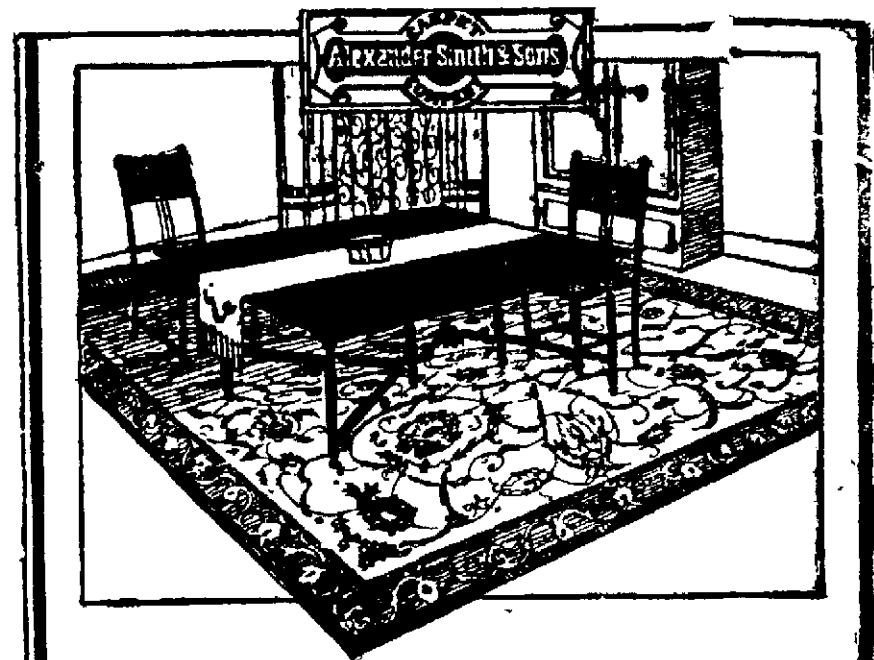

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 22.—The Richmond Automobile Association, and not the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, is responsible for the city's attempt to divert tourists from the Petersburg to the Danville route south. It was charged by Dan Hollenga, secretary of the Petersburg Chamber of Commerce, last night in a statement to The Times-Dispatch in the alleged attitude of preference was denounced.

Mr. Hollenga, who last week harked the local business body with the attempt to divert tourists, admitted last night that he had erred in accusing the Chamber of Commerce, but said he had no apology to make. He said that he had discovered that it was the automobile association and not the chamber of commerce that had "shown preference" in the matter.

"Richmond," according to Mr. Hollenga, is showing extremely bad taste in advocating the Danville route; half the people of North Carolina have been offended by the city's action, and its best interests are being hurt." Hamilton Field, secretary of the Richmond Automobile Association, said last night that he had sent a telegram to Danville on the completion of a three-day tour of investigation of the two southern routes admitting that the inspection proved the Danville route better, but asserted that this did not constitute an endorsement officially of the route. "The Richmond Automobile Association does not, of course, endorse any route," he said. "I found the Danville route more passable and shorter and told them so in the capacity of a motorist," he asserted.

(By The Associated Press.)

WESTBURY, N. Y., Sept. 22.—Nelson, brilliant Argentine rider, led the Orange county polo team to a 12 to 5 victory over Earl Hopping's Eastcott's today and earned for his team the right to meet Tommy Hitchcock's Wanderers in the semi-final of the championship Wednesday.

Eastcott persistently threatened to forge ahead after Orange county had taken a six to one lead in the first three periods. Hopping's individual work closing the gap to 6-3, at the end of the fourth chukker, but thereafter Nelson dominated the play.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 22.—Zach Wheat's double to right center in the 12th inning scoring Mitchell from first gave Brooklyn a 2 to 1 verdict over Chicago in the opening game of the series here today. Bill Doak, twirling for the Dodgers, allowed but five safe hits and turned in his tenth consecutive victory. The Dodgers gained half a game on the Giants by winning today's game while the New York club was idle because of rain.

It was a pitchers' battle all the way between Doak and Aldridge, the latter weakening in the final inning and allowing two successive hits which resulted in Brooklyn's victory. The Cubs scored their lone run in the second inning on a base on balls and consecutive singles by Grigsby and Hartnett.

Dodgers scored their first run in the third inning on Grantham's error. Schalk's pass and High's single. The winning run came with one out in the 12th. High grounded out. Mitchell singled to center and scored a moment later on Wheat's stinging double to right center.

The final inning was played in a slight drizzle. Barney Friberg, Chicago third baseman, dislocated his right ankle in tripping over first base in the 12th inning and had to be carried from the field. The club physician said Friberg was through for the season.

The change was made, it was said, because of the probability of the opening game of the world series being played here on the former date.

RUEL RANKS HIGH

Billy Evans' Dope On Series

AMONG CATCHERS

Ruel, Washington—Bats and throws right handed. Pronounced by no less an authority than the famous Ray Schalk as the greatest catcher in the majors. Fine mechanical performer plus plenty of brains. Handles his pitchers well and is hard to outguess. Dangerous at the bat.

Schank, New York—Bats either way. Throws right-handed. Great catcher, but a veteran who is getting no better with passing years. Has a wonderful arm, fairly accurate. Hit the ball hard when he connects. Very fast man as catchers go. Does best work in pinch.

Bassler, Detroit—Bats left handed, throws right handed. Highly capable catcher, who does his work in such an easy manner that he makes catching look easy. One of the best hitting catchers in the game. Headly backstop who handles his pitchers well. Ideal temperament for a receiver. Woodall, who alternates with Bassler, is right-handed hitter. Good performer.

Snyder, New York—Bats and throws right handed. One of the most valuable catchers in the majors. Handles his pitchers in a stoic way. Has fine arm and is a good hitter. Has played great ball in every world series in which he has taken part.

Taylor-De Berry, Brooklyn—Both left and right handed. Capable performers back of the bat who are used about equally by Manager Robinson. The choice depending largely on the Brooklyn pitching selection. Only a few points difference in their batting last season, but this year Taylor enjoys a 50-point margin. Gooch, Schmidt and Smith, Pittsburgh—There is no one outstanding catcher here. Manager McKechnie decides on his backstop prior to each game, selecting the received he believes will best suit the occasion. Schmidt bats right handed, Gooch either way, Smith left handed.

Rating—Regardless of which teams play in the world series, the catching will be well taken care of. Ruel, if he gets in the big series, should go strong. He's a wonderful receiver. A all-round play he enjoys an edge on rest of the field. Enjoying second successive big year.

Brooklyn Now One Point Below Giants

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Brooklyn, by winning from Chicago today, 2 to 1 in 12 innings, advanced to within one point of the Giants, who remain with Pittsburgh, one and one-half contests back of the two leaders, was postponed by rain.

Washington retained its two-game advantage in the American league over New York as Walter Johnson won his 14th straight game, by defeating Chicago, 8 to 3. The Yankees won from Cleveland 10 to 4, and Detroit defeated Boston, but the Tigers dropped out of the race as they cannot win now by taking all of their four contests if Washington loses its six.

The Senators can now clinch the pennant by winning five of their six games or tie by winning four. Though the Yankees should take their remaining six, Pittsburgh, by winning all of its eight games can finish ahead of New York and Brooklyn.

The standing of the contenders:

FIRPO MAKES POINT ON PROSECUTORS

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Luis Angel Firpo and Blanca Lourdes Picart displayed no evidence of undue timidity when the Argentine heavyweight came here on the steamship American Legion to fight Jack Dempsey, the vessel's steward told United States Commissioner Hitchcock today. Frederick Steigler, the steward, was called as a witness by Canon William S. Chase, who is pressing perjury charges against Firpo in an effort to have him deported. Today's hearing concerned the first charge lodged against Firpo by Canon Chase, and is independent of the investigation conducted by Immigration Commissioner Curran.

Steigler testified that a hallway

Everyone knows Firpo telegraphs his right, but it is shocking to learn he telegraphed love and kisses to the lady in Cuba.

NOTORIOUS RESORT IS CONVERTED INTO METHODIST CHURCH

DURANGO, Colo., Sept. 22.—The old Greek saying "out of bad wood good smoke sometimes comes" was applied here when a "community tabernacle" and its paragonage were built out of timbers and materials taken from a notorious gambling resort and dance hall and from an erstwhile brewery.

The tabernacle, built by the Free Methodist church, was recently dedicated. Its altar was made out of part of the bar against which the lumberjacks, miners, cowpunchers, Mexicans and gamblers of 40 years ago used to lean. The bar's foot-rail was converted into the hand-rail of the steps leading into the church. A Bible now rests on the polished walnut where the liquor of the early days was placed, for the top of the bar has become the pulpit. The altar was constructed from other parts of the bar.

The church rests on a foundation of stone, heavy timbers and iron beams taken from both the dance hall and the brewery. The windows and doors were made from the heavy oak bottoms of huge beer vats.

The building occupies the site of the former brewery. It is situated at the foot of a bluff and is overlooked by the paragonage of the sliding elder of the district. The paragonage once was the office of the brewery and has been made into a modern cottage. It is planned to terrace the bluff and to build winding stairs from the elder's home to the house of worship, using as a hand-rail a coil formerly utilized in making beer.

The two steps that lead to the entrance of the tabernacle are made of timbers taken from the dance hall. One of the boards carries a bullet fired from a ".45," evidence of one of the many shooting scrapes that enlivened the old resort. The heavy timbers comprising the supporting columns and the roof beams were taken from the dance hall. The church seats 200.

PLAN LITTLE WORLD SERIES

(By The Associated Press.)

BALTIMORE, Sept. 22.—The post season series between the Baltimore Orioles and the champion club of the American Association will be started in Baltimore on Thursday, October 2. Jack Dunn, owner and manager of the Birds, announced today.

Four games will be played here in succession, the latter two conflicting with the first two games of the world series.

SCOUTS

Bradley Cain, 14, 6 feet 1, and W. C. Orr, Jr., 12, 3 feet 11, are members of the same scout troop in Denton, Tex. They are said to be the largest and smallest scouts enrolled. Bradley weighs 290, 225 pounds more than his buddy.

Pigg's batting was a great factor in the result. In the third inning his double placed Ruth in a position to score an infield out. The triple in the seventh scored Dugan while his double in the ninth drove in three runs.

A Texas leaguer by Bengough in the second inning accounted for two runs.

Bush was practically invincible except in the third when Cleveland scored three runs on two passes, two singles and an error.

AMERICAN

(By The Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Washington went on a batting rampage in the seventh inning today and by driving Mike Cuyegros from the mound easily defeated Chicago 8 to 3, and retained their lead of two games over the Yankees, who defeated Cleveland.

Walter Johnson faced the locals and after getting away to a bad start because of an error by Bluege, settled down thereafter and had little trouble. It was the 14th consecutive game won by the Senators' ace. He also fanned five men, giving him a season's total of 154 and a life time mark of 3,220.

Harris started the league leaders to victory when he singled to left. Cuyegros was unable to stop the attack and retired after Bluege had sent his club ahead with a double which scored two runners. Johnson was given sensational support, the work of McNeely in center and Manager Harris at second being outstanding. Peckinpaugh led the batting attack for the Senators with four hits, while Sam Rice ran his string of safe hitting in consecutive games to 29.

Dodgers Win and Climb Within One Point of Giants

COMING SERIES AT POLO PARK WILL DECIDE FATE OF LEADERS IN NATIONAL

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Young Lockinvar, swinging a baseball mallet, rides into the polo grounds today to seek his pennant bride.

A feast has long been in preparation in the east where the mallet has spread for smiles between Brooklyn and New York from out of the west the young warrior came to defeat Brooklyn and its champion Dazzy Vance. Today the Giants, warned of his strength and lacking Groat and Frisch, fight to retain their title as the Robins seek to restore damaged hopes at the expense of Chicago.

Pittsburgh, the hero of the last week in baseball's thrilling tale, is one and one-half games behind New York, which leads Brooklyn by one point following the 2 to 1 Robin victory over the Cubs yesterday as the Giants and Pittsburgh were prevented from playing by rain.

The fortunes of the three teams are tied up in the pivotal series at the Polo Grounds. If either contestant sweeps up three games, the other and probably Brooklyn will be eliminated. By winning two more from the Cubs, the Robins can go out in front if the Pirates take two games and can keep pace with the Giants if the latter win two.

But New York has two more games and Pittsburgh four more to play than Brooklyn, if either the Giants or Pirates sustains a winning streak in their final contests, the case of the Brooklyn word will be hopeless, even though the Robins' men captured their four to be played.

In The American League The capital city of the nation prepares for its annual battle of baseball as the Senators continue to maintain their two game lead over the once mighty champions of the world, now hobbling home on aged legs—a victim of the jungle.

Both aspirants in the American won yesterday—New York whipping the Indians 10 to 4 and Washington beating Chicago 8 to 3 but the Yankees face the heartless task of ruining two games on the Senators who only bid to play Washington can clinch the pennant by taking five of its string and can tie by winning four even though New York sweeps up its remaining six.

Brooklyn was compelled to maintain its forced pace of the last week to defeat Chicago in twelve innings but the Senators and Yankees came through by wide margins although Coveloski was difficult for New York until an assault swept him aside Bill Doak, winning his tenth straight game. Zach Wheat and Andy High were the heroes of frantic Pittsburgh.

Walter Johnson, grand old man of the Senators contributed his thirteenth straight victory to Washington's total, while Peckinpaugh made nine hits and Sam Rice ran his season's record of consecutive hitting to 29.

Bush holding the Indians to seven hits, was supported by the hitting of Meusel and Eppa and a belated discovery of the batting eye of the one time "murder" row.

Detroit defeated Boston, 9 to 1, but was eliminated as a possible pennant winner. The Athletics, preparing another had stretch road for the Yankees homeward ride, outbatted St. Louis 9 to 7.

The Cincinnati-Philadelphia in the National, was postponed by rain. St. Louis and Boston were not scheduled. Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club today will appeal to John Heydler, president of the National League, to overrule Manager John J. McGraw's decision that the game scheduled for yesterday between the Giants and Pirates and called off on account of rain, shall not be played.

The Pittsburgh Pirates planned the play-off of a postponed game with Chicago on Thursday, an open date for both teams.

Special Football Correspondent of The Bee, 814 World Building, New York

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee.)

QUESTION—Much talk is heard of the elimination by rule of the screen pass play. Just how has this been effected?

ANSWER—By placing it in the referee's power to penalize the penalty for interference with the efforts of the defending side to reach a thrown ball with a view to interception.

QUESTION—The rules seem to leave much more to the judgment of the referee than ever before. Is this so?

ANSWER—It is so. The referee has increased responsibilities in the way of judgment. And he shall be sole judge as to the legality of incidents or actions coming up on the field not specifically covered by the rules.

QUESTION—How many times may a team take time out without a penalty in the course of a game? What is the penalty for excess? In case of excess is there any avenue of escape from penalty?

ANSWER—Four times in each half. The penalty for excess is five yards. In case of exceeding the limit of times out by removing the player for whom time is taken out from the game.

Nomination of Roosevelt Certain

(By The Associated Press.)

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 23.—Nomination of Theodore Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the Navy, as Republican candidate for governor of New York state virtually has been assured. Last night a group of prominent state leaders decided to throw its strength to the son of the late president of the United States. Withdrawing from the race, Wm. W. Aldrich, speaker of the assembly, gave Roosevelt an advantage over the rest of the field and his name was mentioned with great frequency yesterday as the most likely candidate.

(By The Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Petitions bearing hundreds of names directed to Governor Small and requesting clemency for Benard Grant who was under sentence to hang until the governor granted a 90-day reprieve last Saturday, are reaching Grant's attorney here.

One of the first was from the little town of Turlock, Calif., where 255 citizens signed the petition.

Another bearing 650 signatures was from St. Cloud, Minn. A third petition was from G. Fred Williams, Baltimore.

AMATEUR GOLF ENTRANTS PRIMED DOWN TO 32 NOW

(By The Associated Press.)

ARDMORE, Sept. 23.—The annual tournament for the national amateur golf championship entered the last round of match play today after 154 starters had been pruned down to 32 by a sensational 35 hole "two day" qualifying test.

The qualifying match was won by J. Clarke Corkran, of Philadelphia, the record breaking figures of 67-142. The highest qualifying score was 158 held by H. B. Knepper, of Hunter, Los Angeles.

Five British subjects survived, including three members of the Walker team, one Canadian and a former British amateur champion, now living in Los Angeles. Five former American amateur champions, two former open champions and the present amateur titleholder also entered match play. Today's matches include: R. T. Jones, Jr., Atlanta, vs. W. J. Thompson, Coronado, Philadelphia, vs. W. S. Gardner, Buffalo. Charles Evans, Jr., Chicago, vs. R. E. Knepper, Chicago. Francis Outmet, Boston vs. W. I. JAZZ TABOO THIS WINTER

CHANDLER PEAK AND EDWINA MARTINE WECKLER ILLUSTRATE INCORRECT DANCING POSITION (LEFT) AND CORRECT POSITION

Earmarks of the more stately and modest dance of yesterday are to return. These earmarks are naturalness, gliding grace, restraint and sobriety. The American Society of Teachers of Dancing, which is sponsoring a series of dancing instruction courses, are lacking in varying degree in our modern, clutching fox trot.

Jazz strangle holds and freak manner of gripping hands are taboo and there will be no happy medium, declare the dancing authorities. The American Society of Teachers of Dancing.

When you dance this winter you will be either all right or all wrong and there are no two ways about it. The jazz steps are going out, as the dancing masters, and in their stead we shall see a return of the gliding movements, that distinguished, the waltz, two-step and some of the more graceful, if less lively dances.

BELIEVE THAT YOUTH SUBCONSCIOUSLY SLEW GIRL AND HE IS FREED

Verdict of Acquittal Based On Belief Man Committed Crime and Knew Nothing Of It When He Returned to Normal Self—Slaying Was Brutal One.

(By L. C. OWEN)

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—Can a person subconsciously commit murder and know nothing about the crime when he returns to his normal self?

Police authorities here believe it possible, and on this theory they have just freed "Loneliness Harry" McDonald, overseas veteran, poet, philosopher, and strange mental conundrum, against whom circumstantial evidence points almost overwhelmingly to the perpetrator of one of San Francisco's most brutal slayings.

The freeing of McDonald despite the peculiar ramifications of the case which lead the police to believe him the victim of a dual personality from mental injuries received in the front line trenches in France, probably without precedent in American police chronicles.

The body of pretty 18-year-old Andrietta Hildebrand, known to her youthful friends as the "butterfly girl," was found brutally slain in her apartment here on August 8th. The brutality of the crime indicated it was committed by a mentally unbalanced person. She had been shot, stabbed, choked and beaten.

In the middle west, on paper, Illinois and Michigan fill the eye. But look out for Wisconsin. The Badgers are being primed to make trouble in Chicago by waving wood and saying little, but the whisper is that Stagg will spring real football this fall.

Can you picture a team with two Granges in the backfield? Illinois is likely to make a picture of the sort in a real-life movie. In brief keep an eye open for a youth named Kinsey. Information is that he has all the stuff that Grange possesses with the addition of a quicker mentality.

Bob Zupke is already planning to take advantage of his riches by perpetrating a double reverse play. This should give the opposing defense a lot of thought.

The football rules committee interpretation meeting would have been much more valuable if everyone could have heard evergreened chairman to the honorable and talented megaman may be recommended a megaman to the end that his rulings may ring sonorously as well as judicially throughout the assembled throng.

Predict Record Vote Today In N. J. Primaries

(By The Associated Press)

NEWARK, Sept. 23.—With fair and cooler weather and unusually heavy registrations, both democratic and republican leaders predicted a record breaking vote in today's state wide primaries in which the contest between United States Senator Walter E. Edge and National Committeeman Hamilton F. Kean for the republican nomination for governor of New Jersey has overshadowed many other candidacies for congressional, state legislative and local offices.

Speaking last night in the home county of Senator Edge, Committee man Kean at Atlantic City characterized the senator as a "drowning man" who grasped every straw to explain away his lack of support of his party and president. Earlier in the day Senator Edge in a statement criticized Mr. Kean for the way in which he said the Kean campaign had been conducted and reiterated his answer to the charges that he had not supported the president.

Returns from the elections will be late because the polls will be kept open until 10 o'clock tonight to conform with the state law which fixes the closing hour at 9 o'clock standard time. Voting began at 8 o'clock daylight time.

MARY PICKFORD in "DOROTHY VERNON OF HADDON HALL"

MARY PICKFORD'S

Eighteen dressmakers were kept busy for three months preparing the twelve gowns that Mary Pickford wears in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," her latest United Artists offering, today at the Broadway theatre.

The gown worn by Miss Pickford in the banquet scene was made of black and gold brocade with heavy metal lace sleeves adorned with 100 crosses of seed pearls, totaling 14,400 pearls. It took five women two weeks to string the pearls that decorate the sleeves. The undershirt used with the gown was of gold metal cloth with patterns of roses, made from pearls. The bottom fringe of the skirt was of gold embroidery, set with topaz from Czechoslovakia.

Each costume and gown worn in Miss Pickford's latest production is a faithful design taken from the Elizabethan period.

CLASSIC PLAYS OF THE GRIDIRON

By CHARLES W. BACHMAN

Football Coach, Kansas State Agricultural College.

Great lakes naval training station's constellation of college stars were pitted against Notre Dame in a war-time game. "Paddy" Driscoll, Northwestern University's fleet open-field runner, was playing quarterback for Great Lakes. That game was the occasion and Driscoll the immediate cause of the greatest play ever seen in football.

Several times during the game Driscoll swung outside Notre Dame's left tackle and broke loose for long runs. After a few of these sallies, the Notre Dame defense began to widen in an attempt to stop them. This defensive maneuver was at least partly successful, for Driscoll's gains were materially shortened.

Finally Driscoll started again. From the same punt formation And for the same point outside tackle. But he never struck. Quick as lightning changing his course, seeing that his path was blocked, the redoubtable "Paddy" turned back over center. There he found the hole he was seeking and flashed through to emerge with only the safety man of the Notre Dame team in front of him. And soon he, too, was sprawled in Driscoll's wake, for the elusive "Paddy" was a past master of the art of dodging.

What had looked like a certain loss had been converted into a touchdown. Quick thinking did it. Seemingly path blocked in front of him, Driscoll did not plunge ahead anyway, just because that was where he had intended to strike. Instead, he was quick to see where there was an opening and take advantage of it.

Driscoll's feet carried him to the touchdown, but his head showed the way. Brains scored again.

erous to an opponent. The gathering in Chicago and the one here were in close harmony and were more largely attended than ever before. Mr. Stagg presided at the Chicago meeting and the writer at the New York meeting.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The big "rules interpretation meeting," an annual event for football coaches and officials, held in New York over the week-end, was peculiarly important this season. This meeting and the one held in Chicago last week cleared up several vital questions.

First, it was ruled that any man of the kicker's side may recover a kicked ball which does not cross the line of scrimmage but it will cost his side a down.

Second, a man who holds the ball for a kick off may be "offside" without penalty, but he must hold the ball on the ground and not in the air. The kicker may make a dent with his heel in which to set the ball, but he may not dig a hole or trench for it.

Taken with the supplementary rule issued early last week providing for the advance of the side receiving the kick off to a line 10 yards from the ball in case the kicking side takes the ball back to any position directly behind the center of the field, these decisions seem to clear up all moot questions about kicking.

Third, the rule forbidding the receiver of a forward pass to go out of bounds and then come back into the field of play to receive a pass, does not apply to a man going past the end line of his end zone and then coming back into that end zone to receive the ball.

E. K. Hall, chairman of the rules committee, gave vigorous advice to the officials to rule out any protective armor that was likely to be dangerous.

Today's Purses Total $15,000

(By The Associated Press.)

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 23.—Purses totaling $15,000 are to be contested for at the second day of the fall grand circuit meeting here today. The feature event is the horse race of the future for three-year-olds trotters which will bring out five of the best colt trotters in training, according to horsemen.

The M. and M. $5,000 stake for 2:14 trotters, the capital city $3,000 stake for 2:05 trotters and on a class race, the 2:04 pace are also on today's card.

CHICAGO POLICE TEAM ESTABLISHES WORLD RECORD

(By The Associated Press.)

CAMP PERRY, O., Sept. 23.—The national rifle association 600 "any rifle" match, the regimental team match and the final stage of the president's cup match occupied the attention of contestants in the national rifle association shoot here today.

By winning the police pistol team match yesterday, the Chicago police department team established a world record with a total of 1,022 points. Toledo, number two, was second with 1,017 and New York, number 1 third with 1,016. The previous record was made in 1923 by the Portland Oregon team with a score of 1,019.

It was Noah Webster, not Daniel, who was the dictionarymaker. The establishment of State parks is growing throughout the country.

MARY PICKFORD in "DOROTHY VERNON OF HADDON HALL"

MARY PICKFORD'S

Eighteen dressmakers were kept busy for three months preparing the twelve gowns that Mary Pickford wears in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," her latest United Artists offering, today at the Broadway theatre.

The gown worn by Miss Pickford in the banquet scene was made of black and gold brocade with heavy metal lace sleeves adorned with 100 crosses of seed pearls, totaling 14,400 pearls. It took five women two weeks to string the pearls that decorate the sleeves. The undershirt used with the gown was of gold metal cloth with patterns of roses, made from pearls. The bottom fringe of the skirt was of gold embroidery, set with topaz from Czechoslovakia.

Each costume and gown worn in Miss Pickford's latest production is a faithful design taken from the Elizabethan period.

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDER PUBLICATION

VIRGINIA:—In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of Danville, on the 23rd day of September, 1924, Elizabeth Harvey Thornton, Plaintiff against Maternal and Paternal Kindred of Charles Henry Harvey, deceased, if any, whose names and residences are unknown. Defendants in CHANCERY.

The object of this suit is to have Elizabeth Harvey Thornton adjudged to be the sole heir at law of Charles Henry Harvey who died intestate several years ago, to establish as a charge against the estate of Charles Henry Harvey claim of $280.00, amount of liens against said estate paid off and discharged by the plaintiff and for general relief. To have order of publication in order that the maternal and paternal kindred of any of the said Charles Henry Harvey, deceased, whose names and addresses are unknown, be ordered to appear and defend, etc.

And an affidavit having been made and duly filed that the maternal and paternal kindred of Charles Henry Harvey, deceased, if any, who are defendants in the above-styled chancery suit, are persons whose names and addresses are unknown, it is therefore ordered that they do appear here within ten days after due publication of this order once a week for four successive weeks in The Bee, a newspaper published in the City of Danville, Virginia, and do what is necessary to protect their interest in this suit.

A Copy—Teste: OTIS BRADLEY, Clerk. Harris & Harvey, F. C. 9b-4a

CHICAGO POLICE SET NEW WORLD PISTOL RECORD

(By The Associated Press.) CAMP PERRY, Ohio, Sept. 22.—Another world's record was shattered here today when the Chicago police department, with a score of 102 points over the entire course, won the police pistol team-match of the National Rifle association shoot. This is three points better than the mark set last year by the Portland, Oregon, team. Ten teams were entered.

In New York

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—The most enlightening writer on New York society, its doings and undoings, comes from Philadelphia.

For more than ten years he has been mingling with the select and telling his findings via newspapers.

As a young man in the banking business in Philadelphia, he became incensed with the manner in which the doings of society were chronicled. He appealed to an editor and in response to a challenge became a society writer.

Believing that people were not interested particularly in the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Jones gave a dinner, he worked on the theory that people are interested in just what type plate Mr. Jones threw at the missus during a trying six course meal. He was successful.

A few years later he accepted a similar post in New York. He knew little of New York society and his first assignment was to cover the opening of the opera season.

He went—then bluffed through a story. The next day his managing editor approached him and said, "I'll give you one more chance. In yesterday's story you opened every grave in Westchester. You had in persons attending the opera who have been dead 30 years."

Then Paul began to study New York's family tree, much as one would study law, medicine or boiler making.

"The public has a misconception of society," he says. "Society does not want publicity and society people do not hire press agents in fact society shuns public mention and it is the most difficult news to gather."

In all the years Paul has been writing about society he never has used his own name. He has written under the names "Doyle Madison" and "Cholly Knickerbocker."

In quaint old Sixth Avenue, sandwiched between the aristocracy of Fifth and the glitter of Broadway, is a penny arcade that does a thriving business. The shooting gallery, with its metallic rabbits and ducks, scampering mechanically across a horizon seems to prick the imagination of all New Yorkers who try their skill home and buying winter ones.

Going south to wear out your summer clothes is cheaper than staying in.

For on the way out, there is a booth where pictures of the shooters in cowboy clothes are made. Nearly all patronize it. New Yorkers love New York and boast of it in a superior manner—but they all have yearnings for the West, the open spaces where they are sure Indians fight with tomahawks.

Skirts are getting shorter. Just now they are 11 inches from the side, and will be higher within a few weeks, according to fashion's decrees. The transition period from the long, strictly tailored models will be slow, however, as Fifth Avenue is bearing evidence. The shorter skirts are still in the minority.

Copies of the order were sent to all points where property of the bankrupt company is located and will be recorded there.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 22.—A tax lien and judgment for more than $2,000,000 against the bankrupt Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company was recorded in the United States district court here today. Judge D. Lawrence Groner presiding. The judgment represents taxes due the federal government for the fiscal year ending May 31, 1919. This sum is recorded as $2,873,534. In addition, there is a judgment for $143,676.70 as a penalty for non-payment of taxes when due. Both sums carry interest at the rate of one per cent.

JACK JOHNSON IS OUT NOW TO FIGHT DEVIL

Negro Pugilist, One Time Champion, Becomes Minister

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Jack Johnson is ready for another fight—a little "go" against the devil. The former heavyweight champion is out to slam religion into an un-religious world.

Alas he is no more! Today it is the Rev. Jack Johnson, if you please. For the big, hard-hitting dusky conqueror of Jim Jeffries has got religion now. And he intends passing a little of it on to others who, like himself have waited rather late in life to try it out.

No Billy Sunday Stuff For Him But there'll be none of the old camp meeting type of exhorting for Rev. Johnson. He isn't going to pattern after Billy Sunday with a appeal for a return to the old-time Christianity. He thinks there are good ideas in the teachings of Buddha and Confucius, too.

"What I believe is, 'do to others what you want them to do to you,'" says Evangelist Johnson. "And I believe in trying to do your best in whatever line you're in."

"If it's selling shoes, be the best salesman. If it's fighting, be the champion. If it's thinking much of Samson, even if he was the strongest man of his time," Jack declared, "because he let a woman get him in wrong. A lot of men pile up debt which they have to pay off to society because of women."

"I think old Job was one of the best men in the Bible the way he took his troubles. And I like the story of Jacob and Esau."

He's Willing to Fight, Too.

"I've had experience and been around. I think I can tell people things that will do them some good. That's why I'm taking this up."

Jack says the indisputable fact of a commanding personality. His audiences in churches of his race no doubt will give him the respect that fluent eloquence provokes. Beside that, he lists among his evangelistic qualifications a knowledge of the Bible, "forwards and backwards."

Johnson plans to start his preaching career in a negro church in Hamilton, O. Right now, though, there's quite a stir in the conservation as to whether he shall be accorded the privilege of its pulpit.

The pastor's wife, leading the opposition, insists only the "sporty element" wants him. But the church keeps in mind the elders, who deny they might be classed in that category, clamoring for him to conduct a revival in their midst.

Evangelism, however, will not be his exclusive vocation. He is training daily at Arcade gymnasium, keeps in trim by possible ring encounters. And occasionally on a Sunday, he takes his big automobile out and enters it in a race.

Negro Re-Captured After Operation at Hands of Posse

(By The Associated Press.) JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 23.—Albert Brunson, negro, who last night was seized by a party of masked men on the Jackson-Vicksburg highway while being escorted by officers to the jail at Vicksburg was brought back here early today from near Clinton, where he was located by sheriff's posse following his release by his captors after an operation had been performed upon him.

The negro and a white woman said to have come here recently from Hernando, Miss., were arrested in a raid on a house in the negro section of the city Sunday night. Brunson was being taken to Vicksburg for safekeeping. Following last night's incident the woman was spirited away by the authorities to an un-announced place.

The officers who had Brunson in charge on their way to Vicksburg were ordered to return to Jackson after the band in automobile had taken the negro from them. Brunson was then hustled into one of the cars and driven in the direction of Clinton.

The sheriff's office was notified by telephone and a posse headed by Sheriff Wells and Chief of Police Simmons of Jackson, went in search of the negro and his abductors.

Brunson was found in a negro's house a mile and a half from Clinton where he told the officers he had gone to seek aid after having walked five miles following his release.

The negro, whose condition is reported as serious by local physicians, said no other punishment in addition to the operation had been meted out to him. Members of the hold up party wore handkerchiefs over their faces. No clues as to their identity had been established, authorities stated.

GILPATRICK IS INDICTED

(By The Associated Press.) HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 23.—G. Harold Gilpatrick, former cashier of the first National Bank of Putnam and former treasurer of the State of Connecticut, was indicted by a federal grand jury today on the charge of embezzlement of $300,000 of the bank's funds.

Gilpatrick is recovering from a self-inflicted bullet wound. He is totally blind.

ALABAMA'S ATTEMPT TO CONFISCATE A STEAMSHIP MOBILE, Sept. 22.—After a hearing lasting all day in the circuit court on the question of whether the State of Alabama has the right to confiscate the Italian steamship Vallescura, Judge Joel Goldsby late today took the question under submission. The court declared that there were so many points involved that he desired to study the case before giving his decision.

QUICK CHANGE ARTISTS

SPENCER, W. Va., Sept. 23.—"I can't call here. Earl Lowe said to Brocke Creek house as they drove up to H. B. Miller's restaurant. While there, a bargain was struck and the restaurant with all its equipment was traded for the automobile. Miller removed his apron and drove away in the car, while new owners took charge of the place."

They're Buying Their 1925 Hats

In speedy New York they already are selling straw hats for next season's wear. Over in Second avenue, discarded straw hats of the present semester, gathered up by enterprising sidewalk merchants, are being sold at the curb for 25 cents each. Moth balls and tar bags will help them weather the winter and next summer they will come from their hibernating spots, ready to protect a pate from a summer sun. You can buy anything from shoestrings and toys to gold bricks and bedroom furniture on the sidewalks of New York.

MORNING STOCK LETTER

Thomson & McKinnon

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—It is the easiest of markets that we have had for several weeks. Most stocks are doing very little—a few keep climbing—these as a rule are stocks in which the public does not trade extensively. The public utilities have been very popular. The popular stocks—those representing the steel industry, oil, the metals, equipments and numerous others—are at the same time merely fluctuating moderately at the level. I think this same condition will prevail until the public is sure that we are not going to have radical government and when the market should recover more readily to business improvement. I would be very careful about buying any of the public utilities on such bulges as we have recently witnessed.

MORNING COTTON LETTER

Thomson & McKinnon

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Liverpool as the south had scattered showers with forecast for fair weather today. Official weather summary gives some indication of a tropical storm off Turks Island. Not a large volume of hedge selling yesterday. Market quiet in anticipation of condition report today although a broad inquiry. A much better feeling, however, prevails and the spinster can easily overstep his market. A sharp advance would ensue if the government report is at all bullish. On any good decline the market is a purchase.

MORNING SUGAR LETTER

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Although consumption of refined sugar shows very little if any falling off, stocks of hand are ample for a day or two.

Refiners' attitude as refiners show a disposition to shade list prices. Unless demand assumes larger proportions within the near future cane sugar will come in competition with the beet sugar crop again giving the advantage to the buyer. On moderate bulges we would dispose of sugar.

MORNING GRAIN LETTER

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Yesterday's export sales of wheat are estimated at one to one and a half million and rice two million. There is ground for thinking that a large share of United States surplus will be sold before the turn of the year. Both wheat and rice are in a strong technical position and will rule firm.

Huntsville (Ala.) husband left home because she bobbed her hair; but this may only serve to increase bobbing in Huntsville.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Stock prices displayed a firm undertone at the opening of today's stock market. Selling pressure was lifted from the standard industrials with the result that all opened fractionally higher. Frisco preferred and General Baking each opened a point higher while Nash Motors climbed 1/2 to a new 1924 top at 188 1/2. Bethlehem Steel was one of the few heavy spots.

Renewal of a demand for the public utility and Ford issues featured the early dealings. United Railways investment preferred advanced two points, the common 1 1/2 and North American National Biscuit, California Packing, General Electric, Standard Plate Glass, United Fruit, Loew's second preferred, Central Leather preferred and American Tobacco climbed 1/2 to 1 1/2. Manila Electric Railway scored four points to a new top at 110 1/2. Famous Players, DuPont and Western Pacific each sagged about a point. Foreign exchanges opened easier.
